Note from the Redheads of Rogue...

We recognized from its inception that this Vaudeville would be an amazing challenge. There is such a wealth of music that has been brought to us from across the pond that there was no way for us to capture it all. So instead, we pulled out as many iconic bands that would best represent the talent in our troupe. This is a celebration of what our band, vocalists and dancers can do and we hope you feel that celebration. Maybe you will even find a favorite song over the course of this vaudeville. Either way, we hope you find as much enjoyment in it as we do.

Highlights from Rehearsals – the Garage...

The band uses “the Garage” for rehearsing and practice. But when the singers, and there can be a large number, are scheduled to join them, it is tight. Fortunately they all seem to have learned to ignore me – no matter how close I have to jam myself in there with my wide-angle lens.

Sometimes it all overflows to the yard – this show had a particularly large cast...

Concord Point Coffee...

On the Stage...

Taking the opportunity on First Friday to push the show with a short flash-mob performance in front of the State Theater...
